“ Dear Tracy and Pat, It is a gift to have memories of pleasant times spent together, and we surely had that when your Mom and Dad and Uncle Ed and I cheered for you and Sue on at the DHS softball games so many years ago. Later, at shared family gatherings, your Mom was there and always showing her love for, and pride in, her family. You, and your siblings, have patiently and lovingly ministered to Pat in every way to give her comfort and care. The last year has been sad and painful, but now Pat is with God. May she rest in peace.

“ Pat you will be missed. Over 40 years we have shared joys and sorrows. You have been my best friend. I'm sorry that we can not be together at the lake and that your last year has been full of illness. You are at peace now. Say Hi to Wally and the rest for me. Love, Jane
