

Patricia L. Zebzda

January 1, 1930 - March 5, 2020

Patricia Lee Zebzda, age 90 of Berkley, passed away March 5, 2020.

Patricia was born in Royal Oak with the distinction of being the first-born child in the city for the year 1930. In her younger years she enjoyed singing with Blues and Jazz bands in Detroit, which was out of the norm for a young woman during that day and age. She was an independent and strong-willed woman. She worked at the Fountain Blue in Miami Beach when it opened in 1955. She owned and operated "John Z's Italian Cuisine" in Hollywood, FL from the late 1960s to the early 1970's along with her husband, John, who served as chef. She also sold real estate in Florida and Michigan.

Patricia was also very politically active, and she was particularly involved with the campaign to elect President George W. Bush. Closer to home, she was involved with the Berkley Block Club and enjoyed hanging out at the Grapevine in Berkley in her earlier years. In addition, she loved cooking for her family and friends.

Patricia was the beloved wife of the late John Zebzda (passed in 1973). Loving mother of Susan (Howard) Genser and Lawrence (Diane) Boozer. Dear grandmother of Andrew, Denise, Jeannine, Lorraine, Marilyn, and Ben. Dear great-grandmother of Jacob, Audrey, Max, Kate, Lily, Farah, Eva, Nicholas, Malayna, Diana, Juliette, Lawrence, Bella, and Ari. Dear great-great grandmother of Evelyn. She was predeceased by her parents, Leo and Lucy Sheeran, and her siblings, Margaret and Betty.

Memorial contributions to an organization of the donor's choice are appreciated.

Visitation will take place Tuesday, March 10, from 4 p.m. until time service, 7:00 p.m., at Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W. 11 Mile Rd., Royal Oak (4 blocks east of Woodward).
