“ Pat was a part of our day for many years. He was the first person we met when we moved to Troy—he was all of two-or-three years old when he appeared at our front door. He was already very verbal and inquisitive—and that never changed. We can't help smiling when we think of Pat. While still in grade school, Pat was called on to testify in court. The judge, before asking any questions, asked Pat if he had ever lied. Pat looked around and answered, "never in court!" Some of the memories bring a smile now, even though they weren't funny at the time. On one occasion, when a bulldozer was left in the park for clearing the woods, who else but Pat could figure out how to start it? . . . and, of course, he thought it would be fun to take it for a ride. May God rest his soul and grant him peace. Ann and Mike Dinan
