“ To Carol, Alex and Drew,

From our early high school days, when we watched Pat dominate the basketball court, to the countless photos I cherish on my phone of you sharing life's beautiful moments, your love has always been a profound source of inspiration. The sunsets you captured and shared with me over the years, as you two embraced your time up north, are especially dear to me.

I remember running into Pat at a party when we were barely twenty. He shared his dream of marrying you, Carol, and building a life together. His commitment to that goal resulted in a beautiful marriage filled with joy and devotion.

One evening, after visiting you both in your apartment, when my heart was heavy, Pat walked me to my car. With a warm hug, he told me I deserved to experience the kind of love that he and Carol shared, and he knew I'd find it. Pat's kind words surprised me, but they were exactly what I needed and have stayed with me ever since. Pat was able to spread love with humor, grace, and elegance that will remain in my memory forever. I will never forget his pride for Alex and Drew, especially as he celebrated Alex's graduation.

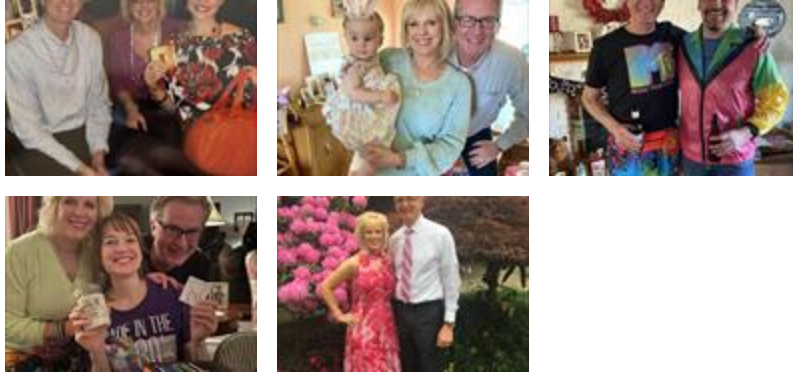

To Carol, Alex, and Drew, please find solace in knowing that so many people are grieving alongside you in this unimaginable loss. Pat was deeply loved by all who knew him. May the love of God, your family, and friends comfort you during this painful journey. I pray that you will see Pat's radiant smile in the morning sunrise and feel his warm presence in your every sunset.

*Love from us both,
Sharon and Bob*

“ Uncle Pat always treated me like a daughter. Big part of my childhood! Always willing to play and goof around with us as kids. He was warm, loving, generous and hard working. He made me laugh and had the best sense of humor! I miss him so much.

Whether it was a day on the boat, a backyard Bbq, or a dinner out on the town, we always looked forward to being together ~ which we did regularly! Pat’s cheerfulness, wit, and genuine concern for others made him a very special friend. A friend who will never be forgotten and deeply missed. We love you Pat! May you find Eternal peace.

“ No words can express the sorrow and sadness so many of us feel in our hearts and soul. I have so many memories of the families cottage called Michabo and running in the Domagalski backyard on Rhodes St. Pat was always the tallest and pretty much always had a smile and good word for all. The Nutt Family's and the Domagalski Family's have lived our entire lives together. Our hearts go out to Carol, Alex and Drew, we love you all very much. “ Dear Domagalski Family,

This is Aunt Donna (Nutt) Cummings. I'm so sorry about the passing of Patrick. From generation to generation, I'm sure he was a kind and generous man. I want you to know how deeply I have appreciated Mary Lou and Harold and your family.

In the early years of our kids growing up together, they were always supportive, loving and encouraging – a special help to me. We will always be grateful. Keep up the good work.

The Lord is with you.

Loving you with a praying heart,
