“ Dear Judy and Family: We're very sorry for your loss. We will always appreciate Pat's kind heart and quick wit. We will also always appreciate how Pat asked Toni if her boyfriend needed a job and then got Matt a job at Fire Trucks, Inc. Pat then worked a deal for the company to pay for Matt's college for the two years he worked there! When he had the opportunity to help someone, he did! He told me a story once about him getting a phone call from someone conducting a survey for Burger King and he was asked how he liked their new fries to which he promptly replied: "I hate em they taste like sh*t. I always remembered that story and laughed about it because I knew that you shouldn't ask his opinion if your not ready for the truth. May he rest in peace. Love Matt, Toni DeVoy Brown and family
