“ Pat had a tremendous mind and an uncanny ability to present a thorough evaluation of a player. He used to finish my sentences and I was amazed how intuitive he could be. We often discussed issues beyond the rink and his folksy insight was very precise and honest. He told me of his days running a service station and I was moved by his work ethic and perception. May God bless and keep his family and make His light to shine down upon them.

“ Pat was so friendly he was like the neighborhood greeter, he was always there to ask how are you doing, with a huge smile. He was the kind of guy everyone would love to live next door to just a great guy, always helping out never needing to be asked he was so good to Kathy when she moved in next door. Our entire family felt so good to know that she and Kennedy would be living next to such warm and wonderful people. He was so kind to our father when he got sick he would always talk to him when he was outside and ask how he was doing. Pat was a one of a kind person, anyone who had the pleasure of knowing him was better for that. He will surely be missed by us all. May God help you all through your loss. We will be praying for you. Love, Don and Karen Crawford

“ We are so very sorry and saddened for your loss. Being at the rink will never be the same whether it be at a Plymouth game or a showcase. I will miss him beside me on the glass and always supporting Mitch and Max and always giving me a hard time about being so hard on them. We had many good laughs and I will carry all those talks, laughs and memories with me always and especially at the rink. RIP my friend and may God give your family strength and peace now and forever.
