“ I remember Paul from when he was a little boy. He was always smiling. He also liked to get into mischief. Once when I was babysitting, he and his friend accidentally tried to burn the house down. Everyone got out safely and there was really no damage but the comedy of errors that resulted will always stay with me. Rest in peace Paul. My heartfelt sympathy for his family.

“ We are so sorry to learn of Paul's passing. He was kind, warm and friendly to everyone he met. Paul genuinely loved and was so proud of his sons, daughter and grandchildren. We will always remember how he so freely gave of his time and talents in service to the National Shrine of the Little Flower. He willingly assumed many roles and responsibilities there. He did so quietly, never seeking attention or praise. His talents in carpentry and building were simply remarkable. We pray that you find comfort in knowing that Paul made a real difference in many lives, and that he is now resting safely in the arms of God.

*Love,
