“ I will forever be proud to be your daughter. You taught me to be kind, giving, loyal, independent, and hardworking. I learned from the best because you were all those things and so much more. I have so many wonderful memories with you, fishing, going to Disney, taking the road trip out west, going for a ride on your motorcycle, going for bike rides, working on my house together, swimming and more. It didn't matter what we did dad, we always had fun. I will miss your fatherly advice and always knowing I can call you to fix any problem I was having. You were always there for me no matter what. I knew that you always had my back. I will miss your amazing stories, no one could tell a story like you. You were extremely smart, had a heart of gold, and gave the best hugs. You were one of a kind, there will never be anyone else like you. You always had a smile on your face. You lived for your family, and it showed. I will carry you and all the wonderful memories I have in my heart everyday. I love you, and will miss you always.

“ Paul, you were the nicest guy with such a kind heart. You always greeted me with a big smile and a hug. You were such a good friend to Mark and me. You loved your family and your friends. You were always so proud of your kids and of course Baby Glenn. I will always remember when he was born and you sent me pictures, so excited and happy! You loved Brenda. You were a perfect couple and I admired your marriage. We will look after her when she needs us. I will miss our dinners and good times laughing and telling stories. You always had good stories! You also always had a million pictures to share from trips you and Brenda took up north or went out of town to see the kids, or just old ones that of course came with a story. I'll miss those! We love you. So lucky to know you!

“ You were the best dad. I am so lucky to be your daughter. The most good hearted and decent man I’ve ever met. You gave me the best role model growing up, and I married a good man because I knew what a good man looked like because of you. You always knew the answers to the things I didn’t know. You always knew how to fix anything! Your Grandson will grow up hearing all the wonderful memories we have of you. I will miss you every day dad. I love you.
