“ Karen, Lori & Brenda I'm so very sorry for your families loss, You Have My Deepest Sympathy. ;(I remember this beautiful, fun, loving, generous woman known as "Gram" back when I was a kid growing up. I practically lived at Karen's house daily with a quick jump over the back yard fence. Y'all are family to me in everyway. <3 I know how much y'all loved her and she you as well. I will always appreciate her kindness towards me as a kid. Her loving spirit was passed down to her amazing daughter Karen, then onto her two beautiful, amazing, loving granddaughters Lori & Brenda. I know y'all have a lifetime of wonderful memories that you will be able to cherish and re live. I pray those memories along with God's love will help comfort you during this difficult time of saying good bye. What an amazing long life she lived 92 yrs. Wow. Now, she's in heaven with her other half rejoicing together. May that give you some peace as well. Y'all remain in my heart which is heavy for you, along with my thoughts & prayers.

With Much Love xoxo

“ My grandma (gma) was my everything. She was the kindest, most sweet caring woman I have ever known and would do anything for everyone. She took care of my grandpa until the day he passed and she missed him like crazy. She loved that man and couldn't wait to be with him. Now she is finely with him where she wants to be. There are endless stories I have of her and I together, and I will never forget them. When i make toast i always think of her, the smell of caress soap she bathed me in, baking with her, our long conversations on the phone, and yes I even got my OCD from her and wash my hands a 100 times a day. Most of all, her laugh was contagious and she was always smiling and loved to dance. I love you grandma. Keep on dancing in heaven and come visit me with butterflies, like the two I saw right before you passed. I know it was you and grandpa telling me everything is alright and your happy and free and with the love of your life. 💜💜💜
