“ Steve and I will greatly miss Pauline, but our wonderful memories will sustain us.

We enjoyed being included in family gatherings at the Jordans' home where Pauline's conversations ranged from her youth through her career as a waitress. Pauline was always a very interesting conversationalist.

Pauline was a thoughtful and generous person. Steve and I were surprised with a magazine gift subscription to Better Homes and Gardens, recently.

Selfishly we enjoyed Pauline's stay at Bria in Geneva, IL for her rehabilitation. What fun playing bingo, where she won nice prizes, and encouraging her efforts with her rehab. Pauline had a strong independent spirit which reminds me of my father Paul Anderson. They both had a similar goal of returning to their home, which they achieved.

Pauline tried to overcome her health challenges but there was other special plans for her. I have a feeling she has met my mom in heaven and they are talking and talking which is a comforting thought.

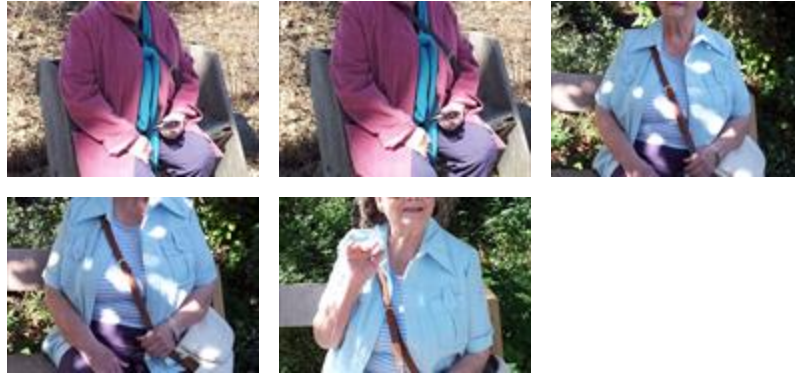

Pauline was a special person.

*Love,
Steve and Deb Hyleck*

Will miss you Aunt Pauline. You are with your sisters, brothers and parents now. You were a strong woman who raised two children by yourself. You did an excellent job! You lived your life to the fullest. Rest in peace
