Where do you begin to share a memory. Pearl was the most devoted Mother I ever met. Had seven kids to feed, but still had a feckel face kid over fo week long sleepovers. I remember the time she loaded the car to go to a church picnic only to find out the car had a flat tire. She calmly found a way to get us all to the picnic. Gay made a cake in a turkey roaster. LOL . Pearl was loving and caring to all she met. My thoughts and prayers are wiith all of the family. Sherry I am so glad we were childhood buddies.
