

Peggy D. Land

January 9, 1931 - April 12, 2026

Peggy Land, age 95, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on April 12, 2026. She was born on January 9, 1931, in Taft, Tennessee, and moved to Michigan in 1951, where she built a life centered on family, the arts, and simple joys.

She is survived by her children, Teryl R. Land and Brenda Belbot; her daughter-in-law, Christine Land; her cherished grandchildren, Christopher, Brandy (Scott), Heather (Justin), Lauren (Jonas), Erik (Jennifer), Alex, and Max (Johanna); and 19 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sisters, Shirley Pitts and Linda (Jerry) Woods. Peggy was preceded in death by her husband, Charles L. Land; her son, Charles R. Land; her granddaughter, Nicole; her parents, Iliff and Nancy Moffett; and four siblings. Peggy was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother who cherished time spent with those she loved. She raised three children alongside her beloved husband, Charles L. Land, creating a warm and caring home filled with love and laughter.

Peggy found joy in life's simple pleasures. She loved music and enjoyed singing in her church choir, tending to her flowers and garden, reading, and working on sudoku puzzles. She had an appreciation for art and enjoyed traveling, especially trips to the Gulf Shores and Florida with her sisters. A special memory in her life was going to Germany to see the the birth of her first grandson.

Above all, Peggy loved her family deeply and treasured every moment spent together. She lived a full and meaningful life and will be remembered for her warmth, kindness, and enduring love. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

The family will be having a private celebration of life service to honor Peggy's life at a later date.
