

Peter C. Clauw

May 30, 1945 - December 9, 2005

CLAUW, PETER C. December 9, 2005. President and Co-Owner of McNeil Agency. Dear father of Sean Kimberley. Dear brother of Michael Kathleen and Pam Charlie Aulgur. Devoted companion Dee Aebel. His Niece, Sarah Chris Fraley and mentor to David Wendy Coin. After the death of his partner, Jerry Friend, at McNeil Agency, Peter continued his hard work and dedication to the insurance business for a total of 42 years. Proud to have the business continue to succeed and pass on to another generation when 10 years ago his son, Sean, became a business partner along with David Coin when Peter became his mentor. Peter was an advocate and great supporter for the kids in our community. He along with others coached and managed teams for the North Macomb YMCA Basketball Program for many years. He was a financial supporter of all kids sports and Service Clubs. He was founder and trustee of the Jerry Friend Memorial Trust Fund. He was a member of the Elks Clubs in Rochester, MI., as well as a member of the Utica Community School Foundation for Educational Excellence and St. Joseph Medical Center.

“ Pam, It was wonderful to read so many good things about your brother and his family. Our prayers and sympathies are with you and when things settle down I will call you or feel free to call me. All the Stephen Ministers are praying for you and your family to have some peace during this difficult time. We are here for you if you need anything. Gods Blessings- Joyce

“ Sean my deepest sympathy to you and your family. Your dad was a great friend to everyone in our family. I know my dad and Pete are together now and probably palying a round of golf with Jerry. I know this feels like a great loss, and it is, but a greater loss would have never to have had an oppurtunity to have someone like Pete in your life. God Bless you and your family.
