“ I tested positive for Covid on Friday and unfortunately could not visit the funeral home on Sunday. I will never forget Phil, who inspired me early in life to draw and create art. His black and white painting "The Piano Lesson", still hangs near our baby grand in the living room. To this day I wish I had purchased "Can Man", which I stumbled upon years ago in an Ann Arbor shop.

Somehow, Phil or my Dad, (I can't remember which), was introduced by the other to his eventual wife. My daughter Sarah Grace takes her name from Grace Savaglio.

When we were young, Phil, Grace and daughters were like family. Mom and Grace were the best of friends since college. Although we were in awe of their musical and creative gifts, the entire family was always so kind and humble. May Phil & Grace live in paradise, and may God Bless the Savaglio daughters and their families.

“ Deepest sympathies and blessings to the family of Uncle Phil. We really enjoyed going to Tigers games with him over the years. So glad we could make that happen while he still could. We know he is in a better place now in the Lord's hands along with Aunt Grace.
