“ Phoebe had such a full and busy 95 years, sharing with so many people her wonderful gift of music on both the piano and the organ! She and I had some special moments growing up together. Early on she learned how to be in a leadership role; her siblings all gave her that experience!

(Phoebe, I can hear you chuckling now. Having your own family gave you joy as you watched them, guided them and most of all loved them. You were there for them all the way to the end.)

I am sad that because of both health and distance, I was unable to be there to celebrate Phoebe's life, but was so glad that our younger daughter, Lisa, was able to be there and to sing in recognition/celebration of Phoebe's life.

“ Jean was a dear neighbor for all the years I lived in Pleasant Ridge. Her children and my sister and I played together when we were kids. Our families did fun things together.
