

Phylis Virginia Caloia

June 9, 1910 - July 22, 2013

Caloia, Phylis V. Age 103. July 22, 2013.

Survived by her beloved brother, Charles Visconti. Predeceased by her husband, Charles Joseph and parents, Frank and Rose Visconti. Visitation Sunday 2-6 p.m. with a 5 p.m. Rosary at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W 11 Mile Rd. 4 blks. E of Woodward, Royal Oak. In state Monday 9:30 a.m. until time of Mass 10 a.m. at San Francesco Catholic Church, Clinton Twp. Memorials to the Capuchins are appreciated. Share your memories at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

Tribute Wall

BO

“Joyce and Dawn, you were both so instrumental in helping to celebrate the life of Phylis. You have another guardian angel watching over you. Peace be with you. Bob

Bob O'Leary - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

WW

“Aunt Phylis, may God hold you in the palm of his hand. Jane and I so enjoyed our visits to Cape Coral at your house and then in your apartment. Jane and I so enjoyed your 100th Birthday Party. You stood and greeted everyone by name that was amazing. I danced with you and that was a real highlight for me. Jane took many pictures of your party and then made a birthday book for you. You were so excited to look through the book and enjoy the party again. We so loved reminiscing with you and Uncle Chuck. We had many lively discussions about Detroit. You were the last the Caloia family, my mothers family Charlie we send our sympathy to you in the death of your sister. Walter and Jane Waltz of Gilbert, AZ.

Walter and Jane Waltz - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CH

“ "Aunt" Phylis was my maternal grandmother's cousin. We lived in St. Louis and visited her and "Uncle" Chuck in Detroit a few times and Cape Coral as well. Phylis' mother, Rosa, also lived to 103 or so! I last saw Phylis and her brother Charlie in Cape Coral in summer 2003 when my wife, daughter and I drove to FLA from TX for vacation. Phylis was the sweetest relative and always treated my brother, sister, wife, daughter and me like we were her own kids. I wished I could've visited her and Chuck more but they lived 1200 miles away. Chuck was a WWII battlefield veteran in Europe and a real nice guy. They both treated kids like gold although they had no children. We always loved it when they visited us in St. Louis. Once, I remember Chuck telling us the story of his dog Skippy that ate peanut butter!! Funny memory!Charlie, please accept our condolences and we all hope you are doing well in Detroit. Chris, Susan & Erin Hasek

Christopher Hasek - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Phylis was one of the sweetest ladies my daughter and I have ever known. She and Charles were good friends with my parents. They lived within a block of each other inCape Coral, and after my father died, my mother moved into Gulf Coast Village where Phylis and Charles were. They had such fun together! After my mother died, Phylis was like a second mother and grandmother to my daughter and myself and we have enjoyed keeping in touch even though we are in Michigan. May you rest in the loving arms of Jesus and His Mother, to whom you had such a fervent devotion, forever.

Ms. Joyce Butcko and Dawn - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM