“ Joe and I send condolences, so sorry for your loss. We remember the children from St. Lawrence School and always enjoy seeing the extended family when we go for dinner at Filippa's. My mother in law, Angie Drader was recently asking me to find out how to contact the family and learn how they were doing. She has recently entered hospice herself. Our prayers are with the family

“ Dear Uncle Chuck and family, Thinking and praying for you. May God guide you thru this most difficult time, and bring peace to your heart. I have so many amazing memories growing up with my "Teller" cousins. Going to Aunt Phyllis and Uncle Chucks home on Van Dyke and climbing the plum tree out back and thinking I was really a "big" girl... wow that was a few years ago. Always so kind and helpful to all. A great example of true love. Gods peace,Jan Rinke Teller

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences for your loss. Phyllis was the love of Chuck's life and the caring matriarch of the family. Those lucky ones that had the good fortune and great privilege to know Phyllis are truly blessed. Each of us learned so much by simply observing how Phyllis lived her life and treated others. This week was no different. Phyllis and Chuck experienced a true romance for 70 years and I was lucky enough to witness another recent episode on Tuesday. As Phyllis and Chuck were sitting side- by- side with their feet hanging over the bed, Phyllis leaned against Chuck, rested her head on his left shoulder, put her arms around his chest, put her loving smile on her face, cuddled up and said " This is my boyfreind. He always takes such good care of me and I know he always will." From the look and smile on Chuck's face, it looked like he was so pleased that Phyllis had said "yes" to a second date. In fact it appeared they were still on their first date. That one little glimpse was a testament to a true romance of 70 years. May so many loving memories of Phyllis help Chuck and the family through the difficult times. May all that know Phyllis appreciate the wonder and blessing of having her in our lives.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.
