“ I rented a little house from her for 2 years that she owned. She was the nicest lady and landlord. I had to bump up the rent to her because it was so inexpensive. She did not want to take it. Rare person. Grateful to know.

My condolences to all the family on the loss of Phyllis. Thank you all for caring for her so well. I will never forget her generosity in sharing her memories of my Mother, and graciously giving me some items that were my Mother's.
