“ So very sorry to just hear of the loss of Glen Henderson. I knew him through his darling wife, Dorothy. I lived next door on Doremus in Detroit, had fun at his wedding and hearing of the births of his children. He was a wonderful and "good looking" man. May he rest in peace and my deepest condolences to his wife, Dorothy and his children and thier family.
Sincerely,
Sandy 'Pospiech' Quinlan

“ My deepest condolences to the Henderson family during this time of great sorrow. I have known Ray since elementary school and he is like a brother to me. We spent 2 years as roommates and during that time I was fortunate enough to get to know the entire Henderson family. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson always treated me like I was part of their family and for that I will be forever grateful. Mr. Henderson was always friendly and had a kind demeanor towards a couple of “know-it-all” kids (Ray and I). He always reminded me of my own father, as our families were both very similar with the same number of children, in that he worked hard to raise his children and was proud of how wonderful each one turned out. My love and prayers are with each member of the Henderson clan. I wish you strength during this hard time but truly believe you will all be together again at some point in the future. May the Lord bless you and keep Glenn’s spirit alive in all of you.

I’m so sorry that we’re not allowed to come together and support you in your grief, but know that you are in my heart this week. Brian Kurtz

“ I am a friend of Ray's from high school years and beyond, and though my time spent with Mr. Henderson was brief, both he and Mrs. Henderson always made me feel right at home, almost like an honorary member of the family. So when your family grieves ours grieves with you. We pray for you and all the Henderson family, and take solace that he is on to much greater things. God bless you all.
