“ To all the Atkin family, Ralph was such a gentle loving man! Our paths met so often in Krogers and we would stop and chat, but I recall he said he was retiring and I knew he loved to cook, so I ask him if I could give his name to the group that did the Senior lunches and low and behold he was a huge part of the team! He will be missed by so many, but we shall all be in celebration one day with our Lord. God Bless you all! Love, The Polsdorfer's

“ When we first met Ralph and Patricia it was after our daughter Laura and their son Matthew had become engage. It was obvious to us that our daughter had chosen a fine young man raised by a very fine family. We immediately found Ralph to be a warm man esp. after both of us getting one of his bear hugs. He had a great sense of humor which delighted his grandchildren. Ralph will be missed by so many.
