Randall "Randy" Roy

March 8, 1959 - January 1, 2025

Randy Roy, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away on January 1, 2025, surrounded by loved ones, at the age of 65. Born on March 8, 1959, in Royal Oak, Michigan, Randy's life was a testament to his creative spirit, kindness, and dedication to his family and craft.

Randy's career as a skilled carpenter spanned an impressive 47 years in the home construction and remodeling field. His work reflected not only his meticulous attention to detail but also his passion for creating beautiful and lasting structures. A true artist in his craft, Randy was known for his ability to turn simple materials into masterpieces that stood as a reflection of his remarkable precision.

His artistic talents extended beyond carpentry to music, where he found joy in playing both the acoustic and electric guitar. A natural musician, Randy's melodies were both a source of entertainment and a way for him to connect with those he loved. His guitar playing will be remembered as an enduring echo of his calm spirit.

Randy's greatest pride was his family. As an adoring father and grandfather, he cherished his relationships with his children and grandchildren. He was the proud father of Aaron Roy and Stefany (Brandon) Young, whom he raised with Kim Roy, and a loving stepfather to Amber Uelmen and the late Dustin Studer. His grandchildren, Boston and Charlotte Young, and step-grandchildren, Jaxson Uelmen, Jordyn Uelmen, and Jeremiah Studer, were the greatest blessings of his life. Randy had a unique way of making each child feel special, whether through his playful sense of humor, wise advice, or tender moments. His legacy will live on in the lives of all who loved him.

Randy shared his life with his wife, Lorie Ann, whose steadfast love and support brought him immeasurable happiness. Together, they built a life filled with laughter, companionship, and shared love.

Randy was also held dear by his brothers, Russell (Kim) Roy and Ronald Roy, as well as his many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Bonnie Jean and Gerald Roy; his sister, Robin Phifer; and his son-in-law, Dustin Studer.

In addition to his family and craftsmanship, Randy was a proud member of the Madison Heights, Michigan Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aries #3206. Through his involvement, he formed lasting friendships and embodied a spirit of fellowship and community service.

In honoring his memory, we celebrate a life rich in love, creativity, and connection. He will be remembered for his skilled hands, compassionate heart, and the joy he brought to those around him. Though he is no longer with us, Randy's impact will continue to be felt through the music he played and the memories he created.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, January 25 from 12 noon until time
