“ To the family of Randolph Young : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

Randy and I Met 35 years ago at the age of 12 we were friends right off the bat. Nobdy understood our point of view or our sense of humor quite the way we did (tippys) the way we put it. As we grew older time and distance came between us but it never mattered when we did find the time to see each other again we started right where we left off those childhood friends. My heart goes out to the Young family my heat will always be apart of you're family you're brother !! Hank “ Randy and I met during our apprenticeship about a year after Detroit Newspaper Strike started. We worked together for almost a year at the Renaissance Center. We used to joke that he was my apprentice because we were often paired together. He provided me with so much comic relief in the face of all my cynical perceptions. He spoke constantly about his family, including especially Daphne. He loved them all so much. In fact, you couldn't know Randy (or even have a brief, first-time conversation with him) without recognizing this incredible loyalty and admiration. I probably have more memories about THEM than I do about him! I frequently think of his admonition to me that nothing else should fundamentally matter in life, just your family.
