“ I'm so sad hearing of the passing of my friend Randy. I met Randy in North Attleboro, Massachusetts in the fall of 2004 after the Red Sox won the World Series. He hired me to sell tee shirts and other World Series memorabilia. Life put us together at that time for a reason. Randy was one of the most decent caring human beings I will ever know. He would have gotten a big kick out of my glee for the Red Sox victory last night. As a matter of fact, I'm wearing one of the 2004 tee shirts at this very moment. Rest in peace my brother.

“ Randy has been my patient for over 10 years. It has been a pleasure to care for him through his ups and downs. I am still waiting to walk into a patient room and see him, saying "Hi, Dr Wilson". I will miss him, but know that he is no longer suffering from his physical ailments. The staff and physicians at the Family Medicine Center will miss him. In loving memory, Dr Wilson
