“Randy. You were so unique. Everyone I spoke with since your passing referenced your inherent style, panache and general joie de vivre. Your jaunty gate and unique turn of phrase remains fondly in our collective memory. Your wit remains accessible, as does the "sturdy bond of fraternal affection" noted by so many of your brothers from the days of Walwood. I've thought of you often in the decades since we last saw one another. I smile every time. You were truly an original. Safe journey, friend. Jon Thomerson

Randy, you were clearly one of the most unique people that I met as one of your brothers at WMU.
Thank you for all you gave to me and those around you.

“My deepest sympathy to Randy's family. I heard of his passing last night and am truly shocked. Although I did not know Randy during his adult life, I am sure that he was a fine husband and father. In high school he was funny and always fun to be around. He will be remembered and missed forever...

“ To Scott Findlay and family, My family and I would like to take this time to say we are sorry for the loss of your brother Randy. As you know, I have known your wife, Marcee for over 25 years and have had the pleasure of attending your wedding and helping to assist in giving a baby shower for your youngest daughter Cecilia. I have met your mom Diane and brothers on a few occasions and just want all of you to know that after recently loosing my father 6 weeks ago, the pain NEVER leaves but the good memories keep you strong. God knew what was best, although many times that's hard for us to realize at such a difficult time. Peace and Blessings to All, Pam Cantrell and family
