“ I was a 1st cousin of Ray. Our mothers were sisters and we did drive out to East Detroit to visit Uncle Frank and Aunt Mabel on many occasions. My brother Ron & I had a chance to play with Ray and Jerry. We could count on some vegetables from Uncle Frank's garden. Both Ray and I served in the Military about the same time. Ray served in the Army as a medic while I was paper pusher in the Coast Guard. I believe Ray's medic duties helped him to find career in medicine. Thank you for your service from an aging Coastie - Larry Burke.
