“ I knew Mr. Brohl as the tired, but happy voice on the other end of the phone line, that was asking for my dad, Frank Janosz, in the middle of spring. I do believe those two shared a special bond and at times carried each other through those crazy hours of spring. He probably kept my dad sane from time to time! I will be thinking of you all throughout this difficult time, and I will always remember his voice! Jenna Ogle

“ Dad, we're going to miss you. I can still see you watering in the greenhouse and talking on the phone taking orders. You wouldn't have any paper to write on so the order would be written on the greenhouse post. We always had to figure out your special kind of short hand and sometimes even you couldn't remember, which was unbelievable because you could remember what the weather was like years ago. You will never be forgotten. Love Jim
