“ Raymond was Distant Henderson cousin. We met for the first time when he and Marlyn visited us when they were in Florida. He helped connect me to his siblings.
However, as age and time took over, we lost touch.
I lost my husband in June of this year after 2 years of very poor health but as usual, am trying to complete information for our family tree as the year ends.
I'm sorry you've lost both parents. I really appreciated the interest your dad took in our Henderson tree and the help he gave me filling in the blanks.
May good memories of your parents be part of the holidays.
