“ There are not enough words to describe how much I loved my Aunt Reba but I was truly blessed to have her as a part of my life: In life I loved her dearly In death I do the same. It broke my heart to lose her, the day God called her home. She left me peaceful memories, her love is still my guide, and though I cannot see her, I know she is at my side. I think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost, and she was loved so much. All her pain is finally over and she is safely home at last, in the arms of my Mom, Dad and my Unc. Her Irish eyes are surely smiling down on all of us and I will miss her more than I can say.

“ Aunt Reba loss is very bittersweet. We will all miss her very much here on Earth but I know she is incredibly happy now that she can spend time with Uncle Dickie, Grandma and Grandpa. I'm very sorry my work schedule has me so bogged down right now and that we couldn't make it out. Please give everyone our love and hugs and we hope to see you all soon.

“ Aunt Reba, you will always hold a special place in my heart. I have so many wonderful memories of the visits at your house with Gma. You 2 gave true meaning to the words "soul sisters." I'm glad you are with her now. Your job is done here. I will miss you, but I know that you are home. Love you with all my heart.

“ Aunt Re is quite simply the sweetest, kindest woman we've ever known. There's no doubt that her and Gram have had plenty of games of Yahtzee under their belts by now. She is where she wanted to be, back with Unc and her loving sister. The love they shared was unmatched by most. It is my privilege and honor to be her nephew and she will be sorely missed. The world would be a far better place if everyone lived and gave like she did. Give Gramps a kick in the arse for me Aunt Re!

“ Aunt Re was so much more than an Aunt to me. Such a loving, giving soul. I will never forget her welcoming spirit and never ending love for all of those around her. Aunt Reba will forever be defined by the legacy she leaves behind: The McHale family. Such a tight knit group which symbolizes everything Aunt Re and Unc were about: Unconditional love & support, family, unity, selflessness, so much kindness.....hearts of gold. God bless you Aunt Re, you are finally back where you belong, in the arms of Unc.
