“Bob, Danielle and Ashley, John, Robin, Kathy and Joyce. I can not begin to explain how sorry I am. Becky is such a wonderful person, the birghtest smile, the heartiest laugh. her fun attitude so infectious. She will forever remain one of my favorite people. I am certain she was greated in Heaven by her wonderful parents and our loving God. Her life has just begun. I love all of you.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. My wife and I met Becky at Masters Jewelry Store in Richmond when she was first diagnosed with cancer. At the time my wife was fighting lung cancer. Unfortunately she passed away 2 years ago. I always admired Becky and her attitude. I am sorry to here that she lost her battle. God Bless.

“ Our lives go way back to when we were just little kids. I remember all the fun we used to have and all things we used to do. It's amazing how our lives have intersected through the years, from being kids to having our kids to where we live. It seems like nothing has ever changed but yet it has. All the memories with you will be with me forever.

“ Bob, Danielle, John and Ashley, We are so sorry for your loss. Becky was such a caring, sweet person. I have such fond memories of the old roller skating days in Rochester. May all your great memories of Becky help to sustain you during this very difficult time. In the past two weeks, heaven has been blessed with two very special angels!!! My mom, Josie, is here in Georgia with us and sends her prayers as well. We will continue to keep your whole family in our thoughts and prayers.
