“ We just finished this holiday season, I thought it would be unbearable without you here. I was just going through the regular activities, still not really accepting that you wouldn't be there. Grandmas doing better than before, we take care of her like you did. I know have to sayyou died last year, and seeing what I have now im more accepting of how you went. Peaceful and without pain, how you've always asked for. Seeing people around in pain makes me very grateful for you. But the feeling that I will never see you again has yet to set in still. I love you.

“ Papa, these days aren't getting better without you. I constantly miss you, but it still doesn't feel like your really gone. I wish you were here so I could tell you I just finished my first quarter of school. I love it more than anything I've ever done before, and I have had the best score on all of the tests out of the whole class. I know your proud, but I want you to be here with me as I go through school. You were the one most excited about it and its so frustrating your not here to talk with now. I know your with my everyday though. I love you more than words can describe

“ Hi Papa, Ive been missing you a lot. it hurts so bad sometimes. everytime i come over now i expect you to be sitting in the kitchen, which you are, just not the part that i can hug, or that makes funny faces at inappropriate times, or that i get so angry at for making fun of me. Were taking care of grandma. Shes just like her old self again, but only half there without you, were all missing something inside of us now. i know you here, i can feel it all the time. Uncle Bruce got me and grandma ice cream today, and we sat there thinking about how much you wouldve liked it. and I bought you canolies on your birthday too, which you would love, grandma ate one for you. we sit and think about you all the time. you taught me so much and i have a million and one memories of you i will never forget. i know you wouldnt want me to be crying everyday for you but i do. everyday is getting harder without you here, i love you papa.

“ Dad - These last couple days have really been rough. The memories that I have of you have gotten me through and they are wonderful memories. I am going to take care of Mom the way that you would want her taken care of. Thank you for all that you had done for her and for me. Hope that you are feeling great now and that Heaven is what we are all expecting. Make us a good home up there for when we make our journey to see you again. Love you so much and miss you! I would not be the person I am today if it had not been for you - Love you, Deborah

“ Papa, where to begin...you have been a part of my life's support system since the day I was born. You helped me with so many decisions in life and never had a doubt I couldnt do anything. You had the biggest heart I know and I am so lucky to have been a part of your life. I love you forever and ever.
