“ I am deeply saddened to hear about the loss of Reuben. He was a wonderful man, always smiling and laughing, which in turn made us smile. Always a joy to be around. I miss making your coffee- a little cream, no sugar- cuz you were sweet enough. And you most certainly were. Everytime I'm in the Bistro, I will think of your stories about the wood floors, and living in northern Michigan. Bless you and your family! You will be missed!

“ I was sorry to hear of Reuben's passing. I worked with Reuben in the Melvindale Water Department, and used to enjoy talking with him after his retirement. I still remeber some of his stories about serving in WWII, and his commander asking if anyone knew how to ski. When Reuben acknowledged that he knew how to ski, thinking maybe a ski holiday was waiting for him, he said; they threw him a sheet to wear as camoflauge and said "ski down this mountain and see what the Germans are up too and then report back and let us know". Reuben truely was a pleasure to work with and know. I am sorry for your loss. Eric Witte
