“ Fr. Zeeb no words can express the void I`am feel since your passing. I think back on all the fishing and hunting trips we took together and the words of wisdom you would say when a fish was lost or a shot mis-directed. I`am so thankful I was able to spend the last two days with you prior to your death I will truly treasure the memories. I have one of your favorite lures all set to send with you today in North Branch. Have a wonderful journey my friend. Hunting and fishing will never be the same. Bob Perry

“ Fr. Zeeb said the 7pm Mass on Saturday at St. St George Towers on Hayes Rd. where my mother-in-law Mary Dominiak lived until her death in Aug 2004. We sometimes took our then 4 yr old great-grandson Dylan with us. Fr Zeeb always took time the to come over and talk to Dylan before Mass. What I remember most about him was his sermons - they were always interesting and short! Sometimes too short. Some of our long-winded priests in past parishes should have taken a page from "his book". I don't know if Fr. still said the Mass there before his death because we haven't been back there since we cleaned our mother's apartment. We liked Fr. Zeeb a lot and he will be missed much, he was such a nice individual. Ron & mary Ann Linsley
