“ You will be so missed brotha. That raspy ass deep voice was one of your trademarks man. I will miss hearing it. Luckily Jamey can impersonate your voice perfectly. We have so many good memories spent with You, your ol' lady and the club. The nights up at the shop spent bullshitting with Jamey your favorite mechanic those memories will forever be cherished. You were an asskicker but you truly had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone. This world lost a legend. You will forever be lovingly known as Snake. Love always Jillian & Jamey Haase

“ I have many great memories of Snake. In his hay day I certainly would not want to mess with him. Snake was a biker to the core. I remember him riding his Harley to my office in the winter and saying, "four wheels are for wimps."

I also remember Snake as a hell of a nice guy. The kind of man who would give you the shirt off his back and had a heart of gold. I am not Snake's "brother" by birth or club but when Snake gave me a hug and called me his brother it meant a lot to me and made me feel great.

“ Snake was brother to many, I'm proud to have called him mine. He was a "No Bull" type of guy, and he wasn't shy about letting you know. Although it may be inappropriate for some, I think he would laugh.

When we were Club Brothers years back, he and some other members went out for late night fun. I was just getting to sleep at the clubhouse, as I was one of the higher-ranking security members at the time, and was asked to stay and watch over everyone that evening. Some other members came busting in, with Snake just behind them ,complaining about another member hitting on his ol' lady, and how he was going to take care of it!!

I told everyone to stay in the clubhouse as I went out to talk to the other member, it didn't take long for snake to come barreling out the door as I was telling the other guy he was about to get his ass kicked. Boy did he.

The next church we had the member accused me and several other members of beating him, I had to laugh and tell him "Nope, it was just snake". He survived Snake's rath with a couple of fractured ribs and some bruising. I will miss You my friend
