“ I remember all the days at Camp Chickagami. Many memories were made there that have kept us a very close church family. I remember one year at Camp Chick that we celebrated their wedding anniversary as a surprise. It was great to make such lasting loving memories with Dick and Phyllis.

One of the things that I had in common with both of them was that we loved our Scottish meat pies and brides! Just recently a Scottish Angel (me) stopped by some Scottish meat pies and they really said they enjoyed them. I'm glad we did that for them.

Richard will be sadly missed by all.. God bless him and his family during these difficult times. I will always love you both.
