“ Dick was my best friend for over 30 years. We shared many happy moments as well as sad ones. Dick had such a big heart and loved to make people laugh the way only he could. We were competitors in golf as well as bowling. He was such a great athlete with a will to win. I was fortunate to be around such a great person for so long and the memories we shared are too many to mention. I love the picture on this post because it captures Dick so well, always happy and full of life. God Bless your eternal soul my dear friend. I miss you.....Paul Lia

“ *Carol and family,
I was so very sorry to hear about the loss of Richard. He was a good, caring man and I remember the good times we all shared years ago. May god bless you and your family in this sorrowful time.*

Love and prayers from your friend always,
