“ Brian & Family: Growing up in MI...I was blessed to have known the Unsworth family I always felt at home around all of you. One thing I remember about your Dad, Brian, he always had something for us to drive; and, when we'd go out at night we'd ask if he wanted us to call and he would say "Don't worry about calling...no news is good news". Your Dad was a special man and he will be dearly missed. God Bless all of you.

“ So sorry to learn of the death of Richard, a former coworker and good friend. He truly had a heart of gold and will be fondly remembered for his kindness and generosity. Sometimes I thought he was almost too good for his own good but I will always feel privileged to have known him. My sincerest condolences to Carol and to all of the family.

“ I'm glad I grew up knowing "Big Rick" and your family. I'll always remember how he treated us as kids. He was never too busy for a friend. He was a good man and taught us kids right from wrong by being an example of true humanity. Thank you Rick. Goodbye for now...

“ Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you, Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed. At the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, Without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, Somewhere very near, Just around the corner. All is well. Henry Scott Holland

“ I am very sorry for your loss - it has been a delight to have had Natalie as a student teacher, and she certainly carries the legacy of her grandfather well. I am sure he is proud of her.
