“ Dad - forgot to reassure you that Candy is in her forever home. I know how much you loved her. She has two little sisters to boss around, and 3 human siblings to spoil her. She sleeps with one of them each night, and has even woken me up when Grace was low. Thank you, Dad, she is another gift.

“ Oh, will you be missed. Our hearts are broken, but we have a lifetime of wonderful memories to give us peace. Thank you, Dad, for always taking such good care of us. Now, we all have a special angel above. Thank you, too, for being such a great role model. Your work ethic, intelligence, and pride in family, resonate through us all. I will continue to share your life lessons: "take it easy", "in moderation", "sit down, relax". I promise we will take care of mom and each other, Dad - I wish I would have truly understood type 1 diabetes sooner. But, I promise we will work hard to take care of Gracie and to find a cure for the sake of our family and all other families. I am so happy that you are finally finding the peace you deserve. Love You! .

“ Dad - Words can never express what you meant to me. Your actions always spoke louder than your words. You led by example. You were much loved. Rest dear Dad, rest. I'm so happy you're finally at Peace. We will always take care of Mom for you. Always - Diane
