

Richmond "Rick" Butler Jr.

July 23, 1937 - July 6, 2025

Richmond Butler Jr., affectionately known as "Rick" was a special man. His personality was as humble as his birth in Alabama to his parents Richmond and Lucy Butler, who both preceded him in death. Even though he was a man of few words, his hearty laugh was contagious and his dress often made a statement. For the longest, even in old age, he could be found living life to the fullest with his dearest friend, Imogene, shopping, going to church, and getting their fill from the samples at Costco. A simple man, Rick loved to read, watch his westerns, and took pride in his service in the military from which he was honorably discharged.

Among those who will cherish his memory are his daughters (Kelley and Shaquina), grandchildren (Samantha, Glenn, Imani), special friend (Imogene Lee), and adoptive daughter and caregiver (Marsha Lee). Among his far-reaching adoptive family and friends, he held a special place in his heart for Joseph (Kim), Chazz, Hannah, Ida B, and Cookie and will be missed by all.
