“ Whenever I think of Renee's Gramma, I am reminded of her great sense of humor and mischievous smile. She was so full of life and fun to be around. 'Feisty' is a word that also comes to mind. I especially cherish the one afternoon we spent in her backyard in Detroit watching the solar eclipse. Another fun time was hanging out in my backyard on a cool summer night eating and laughing. The white elephant exchanges at Christmas brought so much joy. I only knew her for a short time, but she left a lasting impression on my heart. Her brilliant smile and warm hugs will be missed.

“ We have had aunts who could cook, bake, knit, play cards, and drink. But we never had an aunt like you who could sew, love cats, and quick with the jokes. You were and still are my muse and will be sweetly remembered every time I put thread to needle.
