“ The summer Rich and I were first dating we would go to visit Kelly in Rochester. We would spend the evening with her and her parents, eating Bob's famous Brats, drinking Margheritas and playing games. One of our favorites was Wheel of Fortune. Sue would be Vanna, running her fingernails under the letters and Bob would be Pat. I can still hear his deep voice when we would guess wrong.... OH I'm Sooo Sorry. We loved spending time with them, they were so fun! Bob had a great sense of humor and was always fun to be around. I will always remember him with a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family. I worked with Bob for many years and was very appreciative of his tremendous talent and work ethic. I always enjoyed being around him and enjoyed his jokes, especially the blond jokes. I kept telling him I wasn't really blond, but he had an endless supply of jokes that he provided even after we both retired. He will be missed!!!

“ I would like to express my condolences to Bob's entire family. He was a great boss and friend. I met Bob in 1979 while working at AMC, and have dealt with him many times in various capacities. One of those, being a member of his staff. Bob was the "perfect" boss, he respected everybody. He was a joy to work for, be around and just plain know. It was my privelege to know and associate with him.

“ When Bob moved from Milwaukee, he came to AMC in Detroit and was my boss. The first time I met him was at a Christmas party. Needless to say, his personality was immediately obvious. I could tell we would be great friends. I have such great memories. We traveled to locations implementing new payroll systems. He treated everyone as a friend - employees, peers, business partners. He seemed to know everyone! He was so proud of his girls as they were growing up; I remember college and wedding stories. He loved his grandkids; I also heard about them and sports and school. I really enjoyed Bob. He was such a personable, honest person. I was lucky to work for him and have him as a friend.

“ Bob was one of the coolest people I have ever known. I have so many great memories of times spent with Bob that it would be impossible to pick a favorite one. He had the amazing ability to entertain and educate whatever group of people he was with. He taught me to get out of a sandtrap, and those ribs he could cook..... I will miss you, Bob
