“ To the Mathews family, Bob's been on on my mind for a long time. I'm terribly sorry. I've always enjoyed sitting with him at the club listening to his jokes, and stories. If I could get a seat at his table. Jim Maio.

“ From all the months of hope for a new lung came only the despair of knowing that it wasn't to be. Russ and I and our children will miss him so much and for so many reasons. He was a true friend - always willing to do anything for you at any time, including sharing his prize lillies. I will take extra special care of them now and will think of him with each bloom. Here's to you, Bob - just one more...only two fingers...

“ Donna and I are both deeply saddened by the death of Bob. Both avid hunters, Bob and I often met on Pelee Island. A circumstance that Bob never forgot and never failed to remind me on occasion, is watching me fall backwards with shot gun in hand. You see I was narrowing on a pheasant directly overhead and over I went....I can still see Bob's expression of shock as well as laughter. He made a point to bring it up during wine night at the Britts, always with a smirk. I will miss you old buddy. Donna and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to Murph, Scott, Sue, Jack and families...
