“ Bob was a kind big hearted man who loved kids, horses, football, baseball, hockey and cigars. Most of all he was a loyal friend and family man. His sense of humor was second to none. He always had us laughing. We had a lot of fun and laughter whether it was at a family gathering in Birmingham, MI, chatting with Punch McGoldrick at Calumet Farm or meeting with Dough Flynn after the Reds played the Tigers. Bob was well known and well liked wherever he went, and will be missed by many many people.
