“ I will always be grateful for my father's words of wisdom. And always his encouragement and wanting the best for me. He was always proud to call me his son. Working with him was a learning experience. He was always so good with people. Definitely a people person. He cared and loved his family deeply. Family was everything to him. You loved his dog King. He loved the Outdoors especially golfing. I will always remember times we spent working on his boat. It was such a joy. I'm going to miss you Dad. But you always be close to me in my heart. Thank you for everything. Bobby

Bobby was my dads good friend. I remember him to always be upbeat , good humored, and supportive to me as a kid growing up. My dad died, and I got to see Bobby when I visited home(California). I will always remember Bob for his kind support, and friendship. God Bless you Bobby! Love John Shad

“ Remember the many summer days on Cass lake..or when I wld work the route with him and spend hours at the senior center..or the numerous browsing trips to Kmart..or going to eat at Gus's in lake Orion and eating escargo or thinking his martini was water and drinking it and saying I think something is wrong with this water. Mind u I was only 10 I think..

“ I am beyond grateful for you my Dad.. you've been a great roll model for all of us who knew you! Your my bestfriend, cheerleader, sounding board and most of all a outstanding human. You always welcome everyone into your home with open arms and shared stories that sometimes were unbelievable, but always true. I love you with all my heart forever and always. Xoxo Till I see you again .

So very sorry for your loss Karen. You know, I loved your dad. He reminded me of my dad. RIP dear Bob. You were a wonderful father, grandfather and great grand dad, and a wonderful friend to those who had the privilege to know you. Funny story from the last time I saw Bob. He wanted to go to Kroger, so I took him. We had coffee, and he ate a whole bag of grapes as we shopped. when we got to the cash register, he told the lady he didn't want the grapes that were left. I wanted to laught so bad but didn't dare. When we got to the car I had to go back to Kroger, to return the coffee because he didn't want it. We had gotten so many things we didn't need so you made him go back and take the things back. Lol it was so funny. One thing I have to say, he didn't like Karen being mad at he. He loved his family very much. I love you Karen, wish I know, I would had been there with you. So sorry. To Bob, Susan, your mom, and Lindsay sorry for your loss.
