“ I have come across Rob's obituary by chance and I too, like Jim Maples and Rob DeForge, remember Rob fondly from Central Michigan University--3rd Floor Saxe Hall--where he was well liked, and, I am sure, well remembered for his easy going and pleasant nature. I am sorry for your loss. Tom Arsenault Dearborn, MI

“ I went to school with Rob at Central. Ironically our brothers Frank and David were friends and fraternity brothers at State. One of my most memorable experiences from school was working with Rob on a semester long project for PR class. Together with two other classmates we won the competition. Great job Rob! I'll never forget your infectious smile and great attitude. My deepest condolences to Rob's family. I know he will be terribly missed.

“ Hello, In looking through the Sunday paper, I came across the obituary of Rob's, and it hit me this was the same person that lived on my hall my freshman year at college at CMU. Hopefully I am not wrong in posting this, and do not have the wrong Rob. All I remember in that year is he was a fun loving person, and very easy to get along with. Being the same age, and losing my father and best friend at this same age, it can certainly ground you into what is important....your family. I am sorry for your loss.

“ To the entire Scalici Family û I heard the devastating news about RobÆs death yesterday. It was a big shock to me and IÆm sure everyone in the family is distraught. It seems so unfair and I want you to know that my thoughts, prayers, love and best wishes are with you all during this extremely difficult time. Life constantly tests us and with the help and support of those around you, I wish you all the courage, faith and tenacity to get through these grief-stricken circumstances together. Rob was always full of energy, piss & vinegar and his zest for life was infectious. He was an admirable and long time family friend. I know it just seems so unreal right now, and no words can even come close. Although it has been a while since I saw Rob, recalling the dayÆs conger up images still fresh in my memory. Most of these best memories make me smile or laugh contagiously as Rob had a way to always make you smileàà I want you to know that youÆre not alone during this difficult time. IÆm here for you and your family and I love you - as are many of your friends. ~ Godspeed ~
