“ I worked with Bob for the past five years and he was such a wonderful man. He always left candy at my desk to surprise me and I called him the Candy Man. He was a real family man, loved his grandchildren and loved going to his cottage. He will be missed by so many people.

“ Patti and Family, may God grant you and yours at this difficult time,all the strength you need ,sharing your sorrow in the loss of Bobby one so dear and sending our Deepest Sympathy. When you loose someone on earth ,you do not loose them you gain an Angel in heaven. Perhaps those are not stars in the sky ,but rather openings where our loved ones shine down to let us know they are happy. I will never forget Bobby's smile and kind gentle ways he was a very good friend from grade school until now and will be Sadly missed. Love,Holy Hugs and Prayers Joe and Dee
