“ To my sister Gayla, her husband Ron, and my niece Angie, I am so sadden by Rob's leaving. I was blessed to know him only a short time. He will join the angels in heaven to look over the rest of us. I know your faith is strong, let it comfort you. Please know that I am always here for you, call me whenever you are up to it. With love always, Susie

“Do place my tears in your skin bottle," was faithful David's confident plea to our tender Father, Jehovah, at a time of great distress in his life. Dear Ones, at this grievous time in your lives, please allow your hearts to be comforted by this same assurance. Our Father knows and cares about our need for comfort, and gives us to one another to that end. Through the deeds, prayers, and comforting words of all that dearly love you, please assure your hearts that our caring God has, indeed, placed your "tears in His skin bottle." With warmest love,

“ Ron, Gayla, and Angie We want to express our deepest sympathy to each of you. I'd like to share a special memory that happened about 15 yrs. ago when Robbie worked for us at the K C Picnic Grounds. We had an old Apache Trailer that had been converted into a lemonade trailer. It had aa drop ceiling where the serving window was. Robbie was going to work with Ralph, my son. Both boys were about 6 feet tall which meant that the server would be bent over while shaking and selling lemonade. The one squeezing lemonade would have to remember to duck down when handing the server the trays of lemonade. After 8 hours of working, needless to say, both boys could hardly straighten up but, Robbie had a 2-3 inch red streak running across the middle of his forehead. I still smile at the memory.

“ Ron, Gayla, and Angie, Both of us are deeply pained at your loss and as we have no children or siblings that have passed away we cannot fully understand the depth of your grief, but as having lost loved ones who are dear to us we pray that Jehovah will comfort you as you go through this difficult time and know that one day soon you will be able to hold him again. With much Christian love, Larry and Valerie

“ Ron, Gayla and Angie, May Jehovah continue providing you comfort concerning the loss of Rob. Your families excellent example continues to encourage Juanita and I as you keep putting Jehovah first in such a fine way. "From such a great thing as death he did rescue us and will rescue us; and our hope is in him that he will also rescue us further." 2 Cor 1:10 Rob's future can be in no better hands than those of the "Judge of all the earth"? “ We are so very, very sorry to hear of the loss of Rob Robbie. The pain you are having now will be erased real soon. But till then, Jehovah is always there to give you the strength to endure. Take the time to remember the good times you had with him, you know, the funny things he may have done or the times you had together. It will help for a few moments but it is very comforting. Then look forward to the times you will have with him soon. You all are specifically in our prayers.

“ Ron, Gayla and Angie- We want you to know how much we love you and how much we loved Rob. The last time we were with him was so nice. We all laughed and it was just the happiest time! The girls' were just thrilled to have Rob teaching them to play the guitar. He spent time with each of them, ever so patiently helping them. Little did we know that this precious time would be our last with him. It is a treasured memory and I hope sharing it brings memories of good times to mind. We will keep you in our prayers every day. Love, Frank, Sondra, Daniella, Mary and Frankie

“ We want to send our deep love to you. We wish there was more that we could do or say to ease your pain, but we know Jehovah's loving care will support and comfort you until He fully carries out his wonderful purpose. Know that our hearts and prayers are with you especially at this most difficult time.

“ There are just no words to express how we feel about your loss. We watched the young boy grow into a man and struggle with the difficulties that face so many of us and our families. May you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah our God is truly a merciful and loving God. He shares your pain and grief and will be there for you now and forever. Remember the good times because we know that there were many that you enjoyed with Rob.....
