“ I will miss you my friend,so glad that we had a chance to reunite and share our good times bad,times and all our growing old aches and pains.Three hours we relived our time working together sharing the things that have been going on in our lives ,we shared the surgery we both have had and best of all remembering how we came to have a very special greeting that always warmed our hearts derived from him offering me some of his lunch which we shared from time to time from each other, go ahead get some my EX fixed it for me . I looked at him and said YOU FIRST it took him a minute to get it he laugh the rest of the night every time he saw me he fall out laughing. “ Imagine our shock when we received this news. We spent many a fun time with Bob, Helene and kids....horseback riding...bowlingroller skating...Our sincere condolences to his loving children....seems so long ago...that we shared such good times. Ron is grateful that Chrysler brought them together....saddens our hearts to have lost him so soon...
