“ Cynthia, Chris and Heather, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time of loss. Our family will always remember the large veggie garden that he would plant in the spring. The kids sure loved the pumpkins for Halloween! May many more happy memories fill your hearts. “ Nothing better than trying to sneak his daughter Heather back into the house, late at night, after a high school date and actually be greeted with a warm welcome. He is a kind man and his spirit will still be present around the bon-fire.
