“ I had the privelege of knowing Bob while we both were employed at the Ethyl Research laboratories in Ferndale, Mi. He was a brilliant man, the most knowledgeable person I've ever known. There was nothing that Bob couldn't do. He was a kind and dedicated man, as evidenced by how he cared for his dear Anne after she became incapacitated from her stroke. Bob was a self-taught watchmaker, even making his own tools for watch and clock repair. This was his hobby, and he repaired watches and clocks without charging his fellow workers for his labor. He was a class individual, humble and honest, the kind of person everyone would want as his friend.
