“ Very sorry to hear Ron passed away! My husband & I (Gary & Irene Elson) worked with Ron at Carboly for many many years!. He was a nice person & always willing to help! One time I ran into him at the credit union & he told me he was going to PA. So I said what part? He told me & I said that my dad was from PA. So he was telling me about the area & different stories. RIP my friend!

“ It was always a pleasure to spend time with Ronnie. He always accepted us as we were. Such a loving caring man. The last time we spent together was a 4th of July in Brockway. He reminded me of Aunt Mary and Uncle Joe. They also were wonderful people. Love and Prayers for all the family in this time of sorrow. Nina Lemmon used to be married to cousin Bob Salizzoni.

“ I will never forget and will always cherish the many family vacations that we took with Uncle Ron, Aunt Linda and Michelle. So many great camping trips over the years. We had several family game night and baking days. I will always remember the time that we spilled a whole bottle of sprinkles on the floor at uncle Ron and aunt Linda's house. I don't believe he was overly happy with us that night, but we still had family baking day for years to come. The thing I remember the most is his love for his daughter Michelle. I know with everything in me that he loves her with all his heart and is very proud of her.

I didn't know Ron tat long. We met in 2018 shortly after my husband Dan and I moved in to the park. We had 2 little dogs 🐕 which I would walk 4-5 times a day and we ran into each other and started talking about the dogs . Paco and my 2 got along wellll so when I was out we would stop and visit for a bit about what his life was like and how he doing. Talked about being Teamsters in trucking I worked in office dispatching and how or what we thought it use to do for us. I sometimes walked Paco for him when I could but I soon had to stop do to hip issues but I missed that a bunch just recently I visit him too say I was so sorry I wasn't there for him and Paco. God rest your soul with love and peace prayer to your family. Peace be with you all
